A United Nations staffer has been so busted. The official Twitter account was mixing business with pleasure by following a busty German porn

Penelope Black Diamond — who regularly posts X-rated videos via @PBDBigBustyStar — was revealed to be among only 537 people followed by @UN.

Rubbing virtual shoulders with dignitaries and heads of states, the adult actress was placed three accounts beneath World Bank Africa Region and two above @ChildreninWar.

The sex-pot who claims to have "the biggest boobs in Europe" was also bizarrely joined by pop stars Shakira and Ricky Martin on the list.

Eagle-eyed tweeters at Constitutionschool.com revealed the flirtatious follow.

It prompted the person responsible for @UN to quickly delete Diamond from the list.

But it's done no harm to the voluptuous 31-year-old, who's gained more than 1,000 followers in the past two days.

The UN's account, which is followed by more than 1.4 million people, has not tweeted about the incident.
