DRAFT TEXT FOR THE 17TH SESSION OF THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

Technical assistance and cooperation on human rights for Kyrgyzstan

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other applicable human rights instruments,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006,

Recalling also Council resolution 5/1 of 18 June 2007,

Reaffirming that all States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms, as stated in the Charter, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other applicable instruments to which they are parties,

Recalling also Council resolution 14/14 of 18 June 2010,

Welcoming the continued collaboration of the Government of Kyrgyzstan with the international community in improving the human rights situation,

Welcoming the decision of the Government of Kyrgyzstan to establish an Independent International Commission and National Commissions to investigate the facts and circumstances relevant to the June 2010 events in southern Kyrgyzstan and welcoming their reports,

Considering the importance of the promotion and protection of human rights without discrimination based on gender, race, language, religion, ethnic origin, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status and the contribution of that promotion and protection to the political and social stability in the country,

1. Welcomes the report of the High Commissioner for Human Rights on the technical assistance and cooperation on human rights for the Kyrgyz Republic, including the recommendations made in the report;
2. Calls upon the Government of Kyrgyzstan to further uphold its commitment to the human rights enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and to implement all its international human rights obligations;
3. Takes note with appreciation the constitutional reform of 27 June 2010 that made the system of governance more decentralized, and the open manner in which parliamentary elections were held on 10 October 2010;

4. Acknowledges the efforts of the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic to develop, in cooperation with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), the OSCE High Commissioner on Minorities and civil society partners, and the OHCHR's Regional Office for Central Asia in Bishkek the draft national concept for ethnic development and society integration, emphasizing the need for its early adoption and implementation;
5. Reaffirms the need to uphold the rights to freedom of peaceful assembly, freedom of expression and freedom of association, and strongly condemns the acts that resulted in the killing of protestors on 7 April 2010 and urges the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic to take special measures to ensure the protection of human rights;
6. Welcomes the positive engagement of the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic in the Universal Periodical Review process and takes note with appreciation its acceptance of almost all the recommendations;
7. Welcomes the ongoing efforts of the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic to further advance the constitutional and legislative reform in progress and to strengthen the protection of human rights and prevention of gender discrimination and violence, including by bringing the perpetrators of gender-based violence to justice and ensuring that victims have access to medical and psychological care;
8. Expresses its support and encouragement for efforts made to reform and improve the effectiveness of law enforcement and respect for the rule of law, including consideration for the special needs of women, children and other vulnerable groups, for example, by creating an independent public supervisory board for the police force in Kyrgyzstan;
9. Urges the Government of Kyrgyzstan to continue efforts to bring its judicial system in line with international obligations and to ensure that the judiciary is independent and impartial and that the authorities work in an efficient manner to prosecute perpetrators of human rights violations and abuses and to bring justice to victims, with full respect for due process and the safety of victims, defendants, attorneys, and witnesses;
10. Urges the Government of Kyrgyzstan to ensure progress is made in improving the human rights situation in Kyrgyzstan in the areas of administration of justice, torture and arbitrary detention, the right to adequate housing, the rights of women, minority rights and human rights mechanisms;
11. Calls on the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic, in cooperation with relevant stakeholders, to ensure that the legislative framework regulating the penitentiary system and the execution of punishments conforms to its international obligations;
12. Urges the Government of Kyrgyzstan to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, in particular; to address ongoing arbitrary detentions, torture, and corruption by law enforcement and government officials;
13. Welcomes the Comments by the Government of Kyrgyzstan in response to the Report of the Independent International Commission, especially the commitments of the Government of Kyrgyzstan to implement the recommendations of the Report and to establish a special commission for that purpose;
