President Jürg Lauber
UN Human Rights Council
Geneva

Dear Mr. President,

In confirmation of the understanding we reached during our meeting last week, I hereby confirm my resignation from the commission of inquiry, along with the simultaneous resignation of the other two members, effective 31 October, 2025.

It has been an honour to be a member of the commission, and I should like to thank the human rights council for the opportunity to serve the cause of human rights, which I will always give my heart to.

I should also like to thank you for your understanding, encouragement, and support.

Please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.
