

PROPOSAL BY BRAZIL

Invites the Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Expression to contribute to the provision of technical assistance and advisory services by the OHCHR, taking into account cooperation requested by Member States to implement agreed UPR recommendations concerning the right to freedom of opinion and expression, and to facilitate the identification of good practices and partners willing to provide technical assistance and capacity building, to better promote and protect the right to freedom of opinion and expression.