

16 August 2006

Arab Organization of disabled People(AODP) proposal for

Article 11 Situations of risk

States Parties recognize that in situations of risk to the general population [, including situations of armed conflicts and occupation,] persons with disabilities, including women and children, are a group in especially vulnerable circumstances and shall take all feasible measures for their protection including taking all necessary provisions for their evacuation and ensuring the suitable alternative accommodation. In case of occupation, occupying state(s) should abide by the terms of this convention in the treatment of people with disability in the occupied countries and territories.

16 August 2006

Arab Organization of disabled People(AODP) proposal for

Article 11 Situations of risk

States Parties recognize that in situations of risk to the general population [, including situations of armed conflicts and occupation,] persons with disabilities, including women and children, are a group in especially vulnerable circumstances and shall take all feasible measures for their protection including taking all necessary provisions for their evacuation and ensuring the suitable alternative accommodation. In case of occupation, occupying state(s) should abide by the terms of this convention in the treatment of people with disability in the occupied countries and territories.

16 August 2006

Arab Organization of disabled People(AODP) proposal for

Article 11 Situations of risk

States Parties recognize that in situations of risk to the general population [, including situations of armed conflicts and occupation,] persons with disabilities, including women and children, are a group in especially vulnerable circumstances and shall take all feasible measures for their protection including taking all necessary provisions for their evacuation and ensuring the suitable alternative accommodation. In case of occupation, occupying state(s) should abide by the terms of this convention in the treatment of people with disability in the occupied countries and territories.