Mr. President

I would like to thank the Joint Raporteurs for their report and statements. and Mr. Jean Ziegler for his report and presentation on behalf of the European Union.

We welcome the co-operation of the governments of Lebanon and Israel with the Joint Raporteurs. and reaffirm our support for the special procedures. We see a particular value in our links and joint reporting.
We ~~were~~ ^{are} utmostly concerned at the shocking number of civilian casualties and human suffering caused by the conflict as well as the widespread destruction of civilian infrastructure, and the huge number of displaced persons. Now it is important to pave the way for early recovery and reconstruction.

The EU has already committed to save and preserve the lives of the populations affected by the crisis in Lebanon including in particular the provision of water and sanitation services, food and non-food items, health supplies and services, shelter and activities related to unexploded ordnances as well as livelihood recovery and cash-for-work activities. The EU countries have also offered The EU counts on Israel's cooperation in order to locate mines in Lebanon.

I have three questions for the Joint Raporteurs: and one for Mr. Ziegler.

Firstly we would like to ask ~~Mr. Kothari and Paul~~ ^{Mr. Kothari and Paul} Hunt, how do you assess the current focus of the humanitarian and reconstruction efforts from point of view of the economic, social and cultural rights of the population in Lebanon and what according to you are the primary actions that should be taken in order to assure the full enjoyment of the economic, social and cultural rights of the Israeli population affected by the conflict?

that I understand in dealing the oil spill

Mr. President,

I would like to thank Mr. Jean Ziegler for his report and presentation.

The EU has already committed to save and preserve the lives of the populations affected by the crisis in Lebanon including in particular the provision of water and sanitation services, food and non-food items, health supplies and services, shelter and activities related to unexploded ordnances as well as livelihood recovery and cash-for-work activities. EU countries have also offered their assistance in cleaning the oil spill.

~~I would like to ask Mr. Ziegler on behalf of the EU.~~

Finally to ↗

What should the international community do as a priority to ensure the full enjoyment of right to food by the Lebanese population affected by the conflict?

Thank you Mr. President
